Autumn 2 Week 1

Reception Newsletter

06.11.2026

This week has been full of some amazing learning in Reception!

As part of our Project Week, the children explored the theme of Equality Studies. Through a range of engaging books and discussions, the children explored the idea that toys are for everyone, regardless of whether they are boys or girls. They also discovered that they can dream big and pursue any career they choose when they grow up. We talked about how everyone should have equal opportunities to follow their dreams and interests.

In Reading Practice, the children enjoyed developing their reading skills independently, exploring wordless books and using their imagination to create stories by looking carefully at the pictures. They practised describing what they could see, making predictions and sharing their own ideas.

In the outdoor area, the children had lots of fun exploring music and using building blocks to create exciting trails. They enjoyed experimenting, building together and using their creativity as they played.
